Hon'ble Justice AKM Asaduzzaman,
Chairman,
The Anti-Corruption Commission (ACC) of Bangladesh, Dhaka.

Honourable Chairman,

Warm greetings from the Voice for Global Bangladeshis (VfGB). We are a non-profit global platform of Expatriate Bangladeshi professionals that promote contributions of expatriate Bangladeshis to global Justice, Science and a sustainable world.

On behalf of VfGB, I wish to convey our heartiest congratulations on your appointment as Chairman of the Anti-Corruption Commission of Bangladesh. Your appointment comes at a crucial time when strengthening transparency, accountability, the rule of law and public confidence in national institutions is of paramount importance.

As a global platform of expatriate Bangladeshi professionals committed to uphold justice, good governance, peace and sustainable development, we sincerely hope that your leadership and distinguished judicial experience will contribute greatly towards building a more transparent, accountable and corruption-free Bangladesh.

We wish you every success in this important national responsibility and look forward to seeing the ACC play a strong and impartial role in advancing justice and good governance in Bangladesh.

With warm regards,
